

CBRE, the World's Largest Real Estate Services and Investment Company, Welcomes Shubhra Srivastava as Vice President, Head of Data Products

New York, NY — August 25, 2021 Renovata & Company is pleased to announce the placement of Shubhra Srivastava as vice president, head of data products of CBRE, the world's largest commercial real estate services and investment company.

With 2020 revenues of $23.8 billion and more than 100,000 employees (excluding affiliate offices), CBRE has been included on the Fortune 500 since 2008, ranking #128 in 2020. The company serves clients in over 100 countries, including over 90% of the Fortune 100.

CBRE holds the top global market position in leasing, property sales, outsourcing, property management and valuation. It offers a broad range of integrated services, including facilities, transaction and project management; property management; investment management; appraisal and valuation; property leasing; strategic consulting; property sales; mortgage services and development services.

Currently, the real estate market is undergoing a significant and exciting change—driven by data and technology. Digital- and technology-powered products play an important role in CBRE's future success and ability to serve clients. Srivastava will develop and enhance the company's enterprise data platform and products for global markets.

"Shubhra is a seasoned leader with many years of experience in strategy, products and analytics," says Mannie Gill, Renovata & Company partner. "In her most recent job at Mastercard, she led the global consumer payment product team to digitize and optimize a payment process, and she led the strategy and end-to-end product management of data solutions in the Advisors organization. Before that, at American Express she drove the digital acquisition strategy for consumer cards."

Before joining CBRE, Srivastava spent nearly six years at Mastercard, most recently as vice president, global consumer payment products. Prior to that she was director, digital acquisition strategy for American Express, and head of measurement and business intelligence at Nokia. Earlier in her career she held several roles in customer insights and analytics.

This appointment highlights Renovata & Company's depth and expertise as a search firm and advisor to the leading private- and growth equity-backed digital, SaaS, IoT companies, their boards, and investors across the US and Europe.
