

Duco, a Leading Data Automation Company, Welcomes Brendan Siebecker as Global Head of Partnerships

San Francisco, CA — November 16, 2022 Renovata & Company is pleased to announce the placement of Brendan Siebecker as global head of partnerships of Duco, a leading SaaS company that helps enterprise customers consolidate, standardize and reconcile their data in the cloud. In his new role, Siebecker will establish partnerships with strategic alliances and the channel ecosystem to help drive Duco's revenue growth plan.

Backed by Nordic Capital, Duco provides a cloud-based, no-code platform that brings the processing of mission-critical data to business users with governance and control. This solution helps customers increase business agility, reduce risk, stay compliant with regulations, and improve efficiency.

More than 10,000 users across 30+ countries process billions of data records every week using the Duco platform. Duco's SaaS solution is used by 14 of the top 30 global banks, asset managers with over $10 trillion in assets, leading payments innovators, exchanges and custodians, and insurers.

"Brendan brings experience building and scaling strategic alliances and channel programs from the ground-up," says Joanna Chang, Renovata & Company partner. "He understands the financial services sector and how to create joint relationships to better drive value for the end customer."

Prior to joining Duco, Siebecker was head of alliances at Atlan, a data intelligence platform backed by Insight Partners. Before that, he was director of alliances at Immuta, a data management platform backed by Intel Capital. He also held several partner leadership roles at Acquia.
